Ramallah, July 8 (QNA)– Two Palestinian youths were injured by Israeli occupation forces’ bullets on Monday during confrontations south of Nablus, while four others were arrested in different areas of the West Bank.

A young man was injured by live bullets in the thigh, and another by bullet fragments in the abdomen and back during confrontations that broke out in the village of Qasra, south of Nablus, the Palestinian News Agency reported.

It explained that an occupation force stormed the village, firing live bullets, poison gas, and sound bombs, which led to the outbreak of confrontations and the injury of the two young men.

In Hebron Governorate, the occupation forces arrested a former Palestinian prisoner from the town of Beit Ummar, north of the governorate, after they attacked him inside his vehicle, forced him out of it, and severely beat him.

It also arrested three Palestinian citizens, including two children, during its storming of the towns of Kobar and Turmus Ayya in Ramallah and Al Bireh Governorate.

The cities, towns, and camps of the West Bank witnessed daily raids and incursions by the occupation forces and settlers, accompanied by confrontations, arrests, and the firing of live and rubber bullets and toxic tear gas bombs at Palestinians.

The pace of these campaigns increased in conjunction with the unprecedented and continuing Israeli aggression on the Gaza Strip since October 7.
