The 9th Local Dates Exhibition is currently happening at Souq Waqif's Eastern Square in the same air-conditioned tent used for the Al Hamba Pakistani Mango Festival. This event offers a great opportunity to explore and enjoy a variety of local dates in a comfortable environment.

Over 100 date farms are participating in the 9th Local Dates Exhibition at Souq Waqif, showcasing a wide range of date varieties, including Medjool, Halawy, and Mazafati. This diverse selection provides a wonderful opportunity to experience different flavors and qualities of dates from various local producers.

Apart from the dates themselves, the 9th Local Dates Exhibition at Souq Waqif also features a variety of date-based products. Visitors can explore and enjoy cakes, pastries, smoothies, jams, juices, pickles, ice cream, shakes, soufflés, puddings, and more. This event highlights the versatility of dates in various culinary applications.

Stalls at the 9th Local Dates Exhibition at Souq Waqif display aspects of Arabic and Qatari culture and heritage. Visitors enjoy free entry to the event, providing an opportunity to learn about various popular date varieties and the economic importance of dates in the region.

The 9th Local Dates Exhibition at Souq Waqif is open daily from 4 PM to 9 PM. The exhibition began on July 23, 2024, and will run until August 3, 2024
