ISLAMABAD:

The Rawalpindi police presented detailed reports in the Islamabad High Court (IHC), naming the former premier Imran Khan's wife Bushra Bibi as a suspect in eleven cases, including the GHQ attack. These reports were submitted by the CPO Rawalpindi and details of the cases filed against Bushra Bibi were presented in the Islamabad High Court. During the hearing regarding the provision of case details against Bushra Bibi, the NAB prosecutor submitted a response as per the court's order, revealing that four cases have been registered against her with NAB, three in Rawalpindi and one in NAB Lahore. Rawalpindi and Islamabad police submitted their responses, while the FIA and Balochistan police have yet to do so. The court issued fresh notices to the FIA and Balochistan police for Monday and adjourned the case until then. Bushra Bibi has been implicated in various cases, including the Army Museum, GHQ Gate 4 attack case, the burning of a sensitive military building in Saddar Cantt, attacking an intelligence agency office on Murree Road, and other incidents of arson, rioting, and vandalism in different areas. She has also been named in cases at the RA Bazaar, Civil Line, New Town, City, Waris Khan, and Taxila police stations.
