
US President says Haniyeh's assassination is not helpful for reaching ceasefire in Gaza

Published on August 2, 2024

Document Date: Fri, Jul 04 2025 09:21:12 am

Category: ,Articles,English,International -

Show on website : Click Here

Washington, August 02 (QNA) – US President Joe Biden said that the assassination of the Palestinian Islamic Resistance Movement (Hamas) political chief Ismail Haniyeh was not helpful for reaching a ceasefire in Gaza.

In a statement to media, Biden said that he was deeply concerned about the escalating tensions in the Middle East and urged Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu to quickly reach a ceasefire agreement in Gaza.

When he was asked if Haniyeh's assassination affected the chances for a ceasefire agreement, Biden said "it doesn't help," adding that he spoke with Netanyahu earlier on Thursday.

On Wednesday, Hamas announced the assassination of its political chief as a result of an Israeli strike in the Iranian capital Tehran