Beirut, August 03 (QNA) – A person was killed, and six others injured in an Israeli airstrike on the town of Deir Seryan in southern Lebanon on Saturday.

The Lebanese Ministry of Health stated that the Israeli assault resulted in the death of a 17-year-old boy and six civilian injuries. Five of the injured were transported to the hospital, where their conditions are reported as stable.

Earlier today, another person was killed and two others injured in an Israeli airstrike targeting a car near the town of Bazouriyeh in southern Lebanon.

Since October 7th, Israel has intensified its aerial and artillery strikes on towns and villages in southern Lebanon, causing civilian casualties and injuries, and displacing hundreds of families from their homes.
